Shut Down Maria Talks

Recently the Boston Herald did an article about the taxpayer funded website MariaTalks.com.

The website not only tells teenage girls how to obtain an abortion, but it also counsels them on how to keep it a secret from their parents. It also provides pornographic instructions on how to perform certain sex acts. It is paid for by the state Department of Public Health.

Call to Action: Call Governor Patrick

Ask Governor Patrick to shut down the Maria Talks website. Tell him your scarce tax dollars should not go toward efforts to undermine parental involvement and promote teenage sex and abortion.

Please contact the Governor's office at 617-725-4005 and ask that the site be defunded.

Parents are the primary educators of their children. While government can be a resource, it should respect parents' rights.
